

DIFFICULT DECISIONS

It's not always easy to know what to do when we're faced with questions about money. What do you think you would do in these situations? And what do you think you should do? Discuss or write down your thoughts:

1. You find a pound lying on the ground. Do you keep it? Spend it? Hand it in to the police? What if it was just a penny? Or what if it was a purse with £20 in it?

2. You borrowed 20p from your friend, but they seem to have forgotten all about it. Do you ignore it until they ask for it back? Do you hope they never remember? Do you pay them anyway?

3. You and a friend are at a theme park. They weren't given as much money to spend as you were, so they have run out. You have just a little left. Do you:

- a. Pay for yourself to have a last turn on your favourite ride, and then buy a packet of sweets to share with your friend?
- b. Pay for you and your friend to have a final ride, and do without sweets?
- c. Buy a big bag of sweets for each of you, and forget about the ride?
- d. Go on your favourite ride on your own, then buy some sweets and keep them for yourself?
